TMI Board Convenes at Roberts Mountain Retreat Center

An enthusiastic Monroe Institute Board of Directors gathered at the RMR (Roberts Mountain Retreat) center on Friday night in preparation for a day-long Saturday board meeting.

L to R: Stephen Ng Qui Sang , Angie Smith, George Griffith, Al Dahlberg, Virginia Colburn, Carol de la Herran, Dave Thomas, Eric Dahlhauser, Juanita Lee Fisher, John Petersen, Walter Stock

TMI is privileged to have a committed, skilled, and hard-working board guiding The Monroe Institute through these volatile times to our next level.

Members' comments following the meeting reflect optimism and high energy:

... Everyone's input, positive energy, give-and-take made for a very good day ... I am very excited about the new direction TMI is now taking.... The time flew by, full of value and productivity.... The group has some great energy.... each contributing in a unique and complementing way. Many Blessings for TMI.... Let's keep the momentum going to a bright future for TMI.

A Filmmaker Experiences SAM

Martin Taylor, producer of the brilliant Gift Note series, turns the camera on himself during a SAM Beta test.

"All of a sudden my senses kind of snapped into place..."

We look forward to more of Martin's adventures with TMI's latest consciousness exploration tool, SAM (Spatial Angle Modulation).

Meanwhile, Martin's ongoing Gift Note project -- his gift to TMI -- now contains three "notes."

From "Thinking Qualitatively...":

"Gift Notes" [offer]... our educational program participants ... the opportunity to contribute thoughts about their altered state experiences at TMI via audio recording. After compiling a variety of these 'testimonials,' Martin Taylor, a talented filmmaker at the Australia-based company, Whitedot Films, pairs excerpts of these audio recordings with music, symbols, and imagery, creating a series of visually stunning and emotionally meaningful film vignettes intended to capture the essence of our program participants' experiences.

On the Gift Note webpage click each video you wish to view. We encourage you to take a look -- very short, very powerful -- very beautiful. (Betcha can't watch just one!)

Helping across dimensions

Being of service both Here and There is the theme of the Lifeline program.

Here
we work with our own beliefs and healing ourselves and others.

There
we assist those who might be confused or otherwise stuck after their physical death, to find the light of the "Park" or Focus 27, in Monroe lingo.

In this video, experienced trainer Kevin Turner gives his thoughts on the program.

Kevin on Lifeline

If you'd like to work in these dimensions the next Lifeline program is March 31 and there are still a few places left.

Gems from TMI's Archives

TMI's archives are full of treasures, some tucked away and invisible to the casual eye -- hours of priceless video featuring Bob addressing program groups, special meditation exercises, program participants sharing their experiences, guest speakers; photos, audio, and documents from days of yore. Here is this issue's gem:

Skip Atwater addresses the question, "Am I Remote Viewing or having an OBE"

No dragons were slain in the recovery of this treasure.
